

Symbiosis School of Sports Sciences

Report on Sports Technology

Two sessions on Sports technology were conducted in the year 2017-18. First session was conducted by Mr. Nikhil Punde on the topic Latest Sports Technology under the course Introduction to Sports Management. The second session was conducted by Mr. Prasad Kapre on the topic Latest trends in Sports Infrastructure.

The session included Research on the various sports technologies:

1. Sports Venue/Stadium Technology
2. Broadcasting and Fan engagement technology
3. Club and team management technology
4. Training, equipment and performance analysis technology
5. Talent scouting technology
6. Esports

The speakers emphasized on the aspects like what is the technology and how it works, currently used by teams, sports, region, challenges associated with this technology and how to use the technology for the benefit of the sports ecosystem.

The latest technologies used in the sports stadiums, playing surfaces, equipment etc. and how it has changed the game were also discussed.